PRIME 7 & SIGNATURES RESTAURANT

Our new alternative dining venue is Prime 7, a reservations-only gastronomic wonder — a perfect way to top off a day of exploration. Choose between sinfully delicious dry-aged Prime cuts of beef, succulent Maine lobster, or other fresh seafood specialties.

In Signatures, one of the four restaurants onboard, Le Cordon Bleu® of Paris sets a grande table thanks to our exclusive partnership with this legendary Parisian cooking school. (Seven Sea Voyager and Seven Seas Mariner)

Standard Balcony Suite

SUITES

Our suite accommodations provide a luxurious sanctuary of calm and comfort. Measuring at least 300 square feet, including the private balcony, all suites feature a walk-in closet and marble-appointed bathroom. There simply couldn't be a more blissful way to cruise around the world. Condé Nast Traveler, Travel + Leisure and Forbes Traveler agree, as they unanimously voted our suites the best in the world.

SIMPLY RING FOR THE BUTLER

Our Butler Service has been expanded to include suites in Category C and above. Now, even more guests will enjoy the pleasures of personalized attention from a butler dedicated to anticipating your every need. Our butlers will happily and graciously serve meals in suite, make reservations ashore or aboard in our alternate dining venues, and even accommodate special requests, such as arranging a private cocktail party. They are truly at your service.

Compass Rose Restaurant

COMPASS ROSE

As our primary and largest restaurant, Compass Rose sets a tone of elegance with its rich décor. While wonderfully spacious, it still retains a certain intimacy that ensures a memorable dining experience for breakfast, lunch and dinner. Menus present a remarkable array of superb Continental specialties that include even vegetarian and spa cuisines. It's only natural that we feature such a variety of international dishes while sailing the seven seas.

SEVEN SEAS VOYAGER AND SEVEN SEAS MARINER

The world's first two all-suite, all-balcony ships, Seven Seas Voyager and Seven Seas Mariner, each cater to just 700 guests. Not to be outdone by the balcony views, our suites are casually elegant and exceptionally spacious. There's a comfortable sitting area, a walk-in closet and marble-appointed bath with a full tub or a walk-in shower if you prefer. Our interactive television with extensive media selection and complimentary movies on demand will keep you entertained and informed of the ships' happenings and destinations.

There are four main dining venues and a Pool Grill, surprising for ships their size. These two ships are the only in the world to feature a floating restaurant operating under the auspices of Le Cordon Bleu® of Paris. Prime 7 Restaurant showcases steaks and seafood in an elegant new fashion. La Veranda offers both indoor and al fresco dining for breakfast and lunch, along with regional specialties for dinner. And the Compass Rose, the ships' main dining room, serves an international à la carte menu.

Spend the evening in the spotlight or on your private balcony beneath the stars. The multi-tiered show lounge, nightclub with DJ and Casino will captivate your attention for an evening of entertainment. Production shows and smaller music ensembles create concert-quality music to enjoy throughout the ship.

SEVEN SEAS NAVIGATOR

Occupying the uppermost niche in cruising, Seven Seas Navigator offers her 490 guests an unusual level of luxury. Her all-suite, all-oceanview, accommodations include 90% with private balconies. Suite appointments include Regent signatures, such as our spacious walk-in closet, marble-appointed bath with full tub and shower and more. Learn about our destinations by watching our interactive television, or relax with a movie on demand.

Three main restaurants, Compass Rose, La Veranda, and Prime 7 Restaurant, plus the Pool Grill will meet your every culinary desire.

Dance the night away under the stars in Galileo's, or spend the evening in the Casino or Seven Seas Lounge. Or, enjoy a cigar and bandy in the Connoisseur Club or Navigator Lounge after an amazing gourmet meal.
